

SECRET
PSYCHOLOGICAL STRATEGY BOARD

WASHINGTON

Copy No. 3
of 8 copies

18 September 1951

MEMORANDUM FOR: Mr. Samuel Berger
Mr. Harriman's Office
Executive Building
The White House
25X1A9a

Central Intelligence Agency

In view of the fact that the major emphasis of PSB planning will be towards the development of positive psychological action, it appears appropriate for you to consider as a part of the inventory of cold war weapons the formulation of a supplementary list giving examples of the action capabilities of each of the various cold war weapons. When completed, this could serve as a check list for psychological planners. For your guidance, the following are considered appropriate examples of psychological actions:

WEAPON	ACTION
--------	--------

25X1X4

1. -----

2. -----

Promulgation of broad political platform for area in post-liberation phase.

3. -----

25X1X4

4. Blockade

Barring of air space; U.S. commercial advertisement in foreign press. (e.g., recent Anglo-Iranian ads in New York Times.)

5. Economic

Creation of liberation fund for reconstruction of area after ejection of Soviets.

6. -----

Introduction of attention-getting legislation into Congress.

25X1C

Should you desire, in the compilation of this list, additional suggestions or advice, I can put you in touch with [REDACTED], who visits PSB regularly as well as several departmental personnel whose ideas along this line are usually fruitful.

25X1A5a2

25X1A5a2

Acting Assistant Director
Office of Plans and Policy